

FUN-tastic Design Day Games

Let's Build a Playground!

Skills	Ages	Players	Materials
None	3 to 7	3+	None

Playing the Game: Divide children into pairs or small groups (no more than four). Call out a well-known part of the playground (like a slide or monkey bars). Working together, each group has to form the part mentioned with their bodies.

Draw Me a Picture

Skills	Ages	Players	Materials
None	8 and up	Any number	Paper, Pencils, Crayons

Playing the Game: Participants sit back to back. One person describes to his/her partner (who has the pencils and crayons) what he/she would like on the playground. The participant with the crayons has to draw what the other child describes. No looking! This activity makes playground drawing more fun and challenging for older kids (and even adults).

Lean On Me

Skills	Ages	Players	Materials
None	5 and up	2 or more	None

Playing the Game: Sit on the ground, back-to-back with your partner, knees bent and elbows linked. Now simply stand up together. With a bit of cooperation and a little practice, this shouldn't be too hard. You'll start with just one friend and end up with a whole crowd of struggling, stumbling, and giggling humanity!
