

Site Evaluation

From the KaBOOM! Toolkit: Construction Team

www.kaboom.org

Site measurement: _____ Slope: _____ (Note: a level site is ideal.)

A slight grade of up to 2% can improve drainage, but more than 2% may cause surfacing to slide out.)

Drainage: Good _____ Fair _____ Poor _____

Soil type: Rocky _____ Sandy _____ Clay _____ Other _____

Is the site accessible to wheelchairs? Yes No

Note man-made elements:

* Asphalt/concrete surface _____

* Buildings _____

* Available lighting _____

* Adjacent land use _____

* Other _____

Note natural features:

* Shrubs/shade trees _____

* Streams/ponds _____

* Hills/ditches _____

Identify hazardous conditions (if any):

* Streets/parking lots/traffic _____

* Overhanging trees/branches _____

* Overhanging power lines _____

* Visibility/security _____

* Other groups using the site _____

* Nearby ball fields _____

Does the property owner hold an insurance policy on the land? Yes No

Will the insurance cover volunteers during a build? Yes No

Under the insurance policy, what is the minimum age for construction volunteers? _____

Notes: